

youth and skills day

Monday 22 September

Take part in a day of events, briefings and our pop-up exhibition held at Autumn Conference, Bournemouth.

Hear from young people, charities and business leaders with senior party representatives on skills for life and work, removing the barriers to opportunity across our communities.

Programme of events

Morning session: by invitation only

Table discussions with party representatives hosted by charity-partners and guests on issues raised by young people including: education; mental health; skills and employment; youth work and services; volunteering; social care; sports; women and equalities.

To request a ticket contact: jhopkins@citadelcomms.co.uk

Afternoon sessions: open to delegates and visitors BIC, Tregonwell Hall; conference passes are required

Meet our charity-partners at our pop-up exhibition and events

13.00: Skills and Apprenticeships, panel debate

14.30: Keynote speech and interview

15.30: Where's the evidence?
What works to support young people

16.30: Question Time with young people, panel debate

Followed by an evening reception

18.15: Join the Duke of Edinburgh's Award and National Youth Agency and special guests for an end of day reception

Youth & Skills Day is run by Citadel with support from the party and Kennedy Events Consultancy

Kennedy
EVENTS CONSULTANCY

Heathrow

Supported by:

The Children's Society

